

THE MIRACLE QUESTION

Imagine going to bed as normal and falling asleep

Unbeknown to you, while you were asleep, a miracle happens. When you wake up, all the problems that had been bothering you have gone away

How would you know that the miracle had happened?

How would you feel inside?

How would things be different?

What would be the first thing you'd do if this miracle had happened?

What would it be like to have all your problems go away?
